
Call for participation

IULTCS Young Leather Scientist Grants (YLSG) 2027

INTERNATIONAL UNION OF LEATHER
TECHNOLOGISTS AND CHEMISTS SOCIETIES

What are the Young Leather Scientist Grants (YLSG)

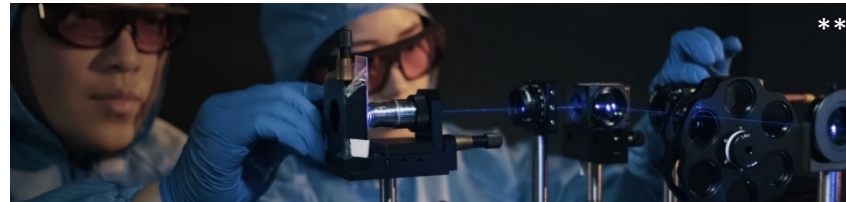

- Award initiative to actively support young researchers
- Designed for students & early-career researchers
- Recognizes innovative and impactful research
- Provides financial support + international visibility
- Opportunity to present at an IULTCS Congress without going to the peer-review process

To whom is the appeal addressed

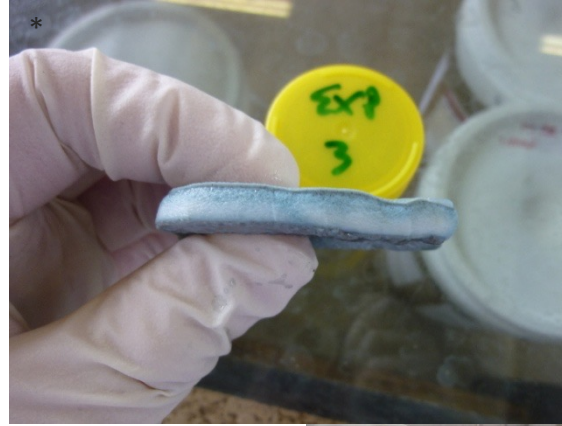

- Student or junior researcher at university or leather technology school with an Age under 35
- With a planned Project in a leather-related topic
- Having an academic supervisor

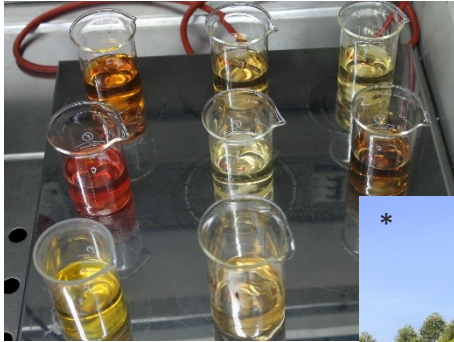

What are the selection criterias

- Clarity and relevance of objectives
- Scientific methodology
- Innovation and originality
- Impact on the leather industry
- Qualifications of applicant and advisor

Which categories will be awarded

Basic Leather Research

Collagen, leather chemistry, analytical methods, innovations, preservation

Sustainability / Environmental Research

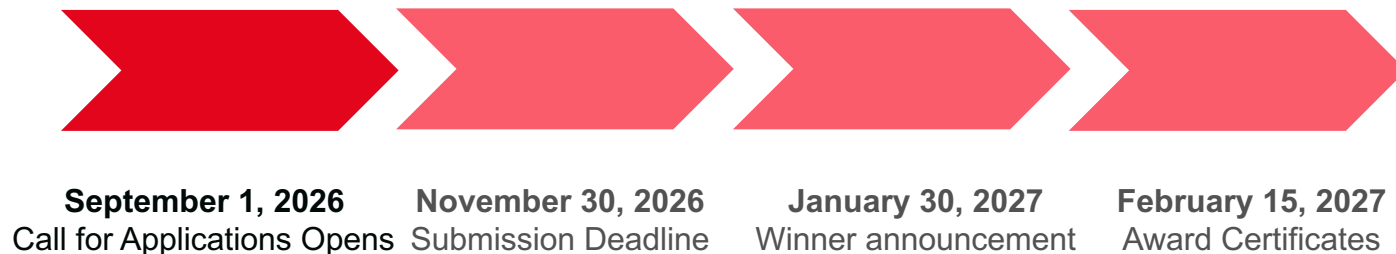

Eco-friendly chemicals, sustainable processing, waste & emission reduction

Machinery & Digitalization

New machinery, process optimization, automation, digital tools

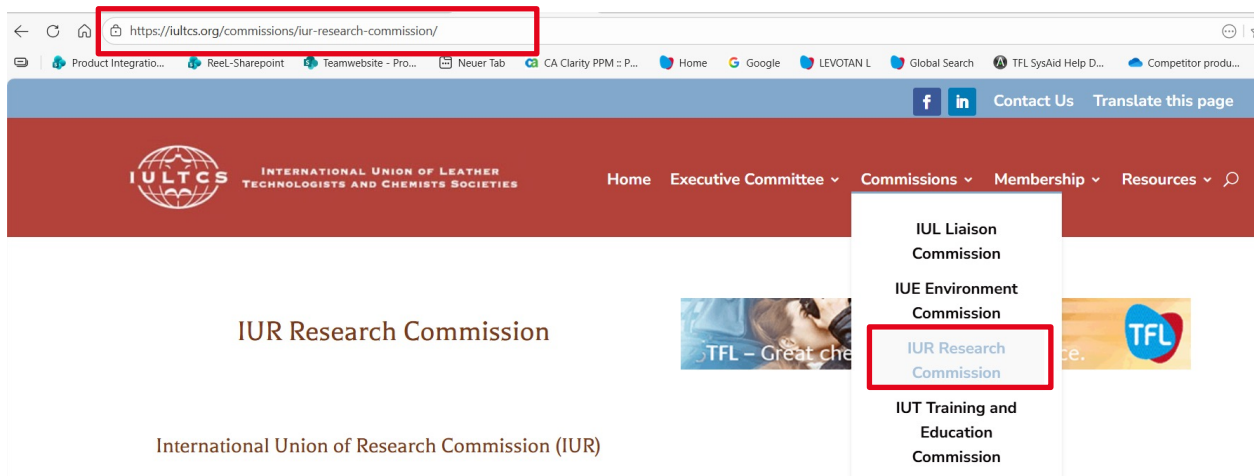

What is the timeline

Where can I find more information about the YLSG

Further information about the Award can be found on the IULTCS homepage within the IUR Research Commission

<https://iultcs.org/commissions/iur-research-commission/>